Remember walking into a church, how were you welcomed	How to respond to newcomer? How were you greeted?	What does it mean to you to be involved in a faith community?	Tell about what happen to you when you invited someone to church that did not belong to a church?	What does your church do to invite people? How do you help that ministry of evangelism and invitation?	How are you willing to change your attitude in the next 90 days?	Identify 2 things to engage in Radical Hospitality. Are you talking about it and walking them out?
How to say thanks to those who welcomed you	Commit to greeting others in worship	Why do people need Christ? Why do we need our church?	Write 4 names of persons who don't have a church and pray for them	Ideas that you are interested in doing in the next 30 days	(1) thing that you are willing to do to invite young people to know Christ	The (4) persons you are praying for, invite (1) each week and take the extra steps to get them to worship

Study Flow:

- Opening Prayer
- Paint the picture: Introduction about Lenten Season and the Study
- Ask about what does Radical Hospitality mean to the individual, church body, and community
- Shape the study with weekly scriptures – Invite someone to read current day scripture / reading.

Romans 15: 1-7 Those of us who are strong and able in the faith need to step in and lend a hand to those who falter, and not just do what is most convenient for us. Strength is for service, not status. Each one of us needs to look after the good of the people around us, asking ourselves, "How can I help?" That's exactly what Jesus did. He didn't make it easy for himself by avoiding people's troubles, but waded right in and helped out. "I took on the troubles of the troubled," is the way Scripture puts it. Even if it was written in Scripture long ago, you can be sure it's written for us. God wants the combination of his steady, constant calling and warm, personal counsel in Scripture to come to characterize us, keeping us alert for whatever he will do next. May our dependably steady and warmly personal God develop maturity in you so that you get along with each other as well as Jesus gets along with us all. Then we'll be a choir—not our voices only, but our very lives singing in harmony in a stunning anthem to the God and Father of our Master Jesus! So reach out and welcome one another to God's glory. Jesus did it; now you do it! (Message Translation)

- Get into action: How do these passages invite each of us into action? As we pray for action, which scripture / devotion got your attention? Radical suggestions: Call 10 people to remind to “Spring Forward”.
- What’s next? Prayers for Community – Who will pray out loud?
